Objective and Strategy

Watani KD Money Market Fund II is an open-ended money market fund incorporated in Kuwait, licensed and supervised by the Capital Market Authority of Kuwait. The primary aim of the fund is to enable investors to gain exposure to money market investments. The Fund seeks to generate returns above KD deposit rates. The objective is achieved through capital appreciation with a low level of risk and high level of liquidity by providing its investors exposure to high quality, diversified and highly liquid instruments including but not limited to bank deposits (or their equivalent under Islamic Banking), bonds, sukuk, certificates of deposit and repurchase agreements.
