

Privacy Statement

1. About NBK Trustees

NBK Trustees (Jersey) Limited (NBK Trustees) is a Jersey company which is regulated by the Jersey Financial Services Commission (JFSC) for the conduct of trust company business in or from within Jersey. NBK Trustees offers a range of trust company business services (acting as a trustee of an express trust, acting as a nominee for another person, acting as a secretary of a company, etc.) to its clients (collectively, the Services).

NBK Trustees is a wholly owned subsidiary of National Bank of Kuwait S.A.K.P (NBK). For more information on NBK and its affiliated companies (collectively, NBK Group) please visit www.nbk.com.

2. NBK Trustees as a managed trust company

For regulatory reasons, NBK Trustees operates as a managed trust company. Link Trustees (Jersey) Limited (Link Trustees) currently acts as the manager of, and provides certain managerial, secretarial and administrative services to NBK Trustees, the managed entity, pursuant to the terms of a Managed Trust Company Services Agreement. Link Trustees forms part of a group of companies, the affiliation leader of which is Link Asset Services (Jersey) Limited (LASJ).

All of NBK Trustees' officers and/or authorised representatives working in and from within Jersey are currently employed by LASJ. LASJ also provides NBK Trustees and the entities to which NBK Trustees is obliged to provide its trust company business services with certain support services, such as compliance, internal governance and IT and operational functions.

3. What is this Privacy Statement?

During the normal course of business and to deliver the Services, NBK Trustees collects from various individuals (Data Subjects), personal information from which the relevant Data Subject(s) can be indirectly or directly identified (Personal Data).

NBK Trustees is wholeheartedly committed to safeguarding the Personal Data, the privacy of Data Subjects and in satisfying certain obligations NBK Trustees has under the relevant Data Protection legislation.

This Privacy Statement is intended to provide notice to relevant Data Subjects of how NBK Trustees uses, collects and safeguards Personal Data and other information in connection with the Services.

4. What personal information and/or Personal Data do we collect?

Depending on the Services being provided, NBK Trustees may collect, hold and otherwise process the following personal information or Personal Data in electronic and/or hard copy written form:

- Contact details (including names, relevant correspondence and other postal addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers);
- Information to meet legal and regulatory requirements including in particular “know your client” due diligence information on individuals to meet anti-money laundering legislation, source of wealth and source of funds;
- copies of any individual’s legal and/or tax advice as may be provided to us, to enable us to provide our Services;
- bank account details or other payment or financial information provided to us;
- Information regarding an individual’s personal circumstances, including employment status, salary details, business interests, property or other assets, or other information about you which we require in order to provide you with particular aspects of our Services.
- in certain, limited circumstances (primarily where NBK Trustees acts as trustee of a trust and has a legitimate interest in knowing such information) we may collect personal information concerning the health of individuals; and/or certain personal data relating to children (for example, where such children may have a vested or beneficial interest in any company or trust arrangement within the Services); and
- records of any correspondence received by us, or file notes of any telephone call you may have with us.

5. How do we collect your personal information/Personal Data?

Personal information collected may be received directly from the individual in question, or be received from a third party. For example NBK Trustees may receive personal information from a client or their advisers regarding such client's directors and/or beneficial owners. Certain information may from time to time also be received by NBK Trustees from other parts of NBK Group and/or from LASJ and its affiliated companies.

6. Why do we collect your personal information/Personal Data?

Principally, NBK Trustees collects and otherwise processes personal information for Data Subjects in the fulfillment of and provision of the Services or to carry out marketing activities. Certain personal information and/or Personal Data is required to be collected because NBK Trustees is required to do so by law and regulations (for example to meet anti-money laundering requirements, tax exchange information requirements and other statutory/ regulatory obligations).

Separately from the above, NBK Trustees may also collect personal information as a result of general or specific instructions from its client (that is to say those persons to whom NBK Trustees directly provides trust company services, each a Client), for example where the collection and holding of such personal data is necessary or otherwise consequential to the ongoing administration of its client entities or as a result of some transaction which requires it.

7. How we use your personal information/Personal Data?

We will use the information we hold about you for the following purposes:

In connection with a NBK Trustees contract for Services

- Where NBK Trustees intends or has entered into a contract with a Client to enable it to supply the Services
- So we can communicate with you in respect of our Services
- For NBK Trustees' Client management purposes including but not limited to the management of queries, complaints, or claims

Where necessary for NBK Trustees to comply with a legal obligation;

- To verify your identity
- In connection with any legal obligation on us to report any fraud or other criminal activity (including money laundering or tax avoidance schemes)

Where NBK Trustees has a legitimate interest in using such information:

- To meet all legal, regulatory and ethical obligations applicable to NBK Trustees
- To verify the accuracy of information/Personal Data that we hold about you and create a better understanding of you as a Client
- To gather views directly to maintain and enhance NBK Trustees' products and services
- In connection with the support network and system security in order for us to take steps to protect your information against loss or damage, theft or unauthorised access;
- To comply with a request from you in connection with the exercise of your rights (for example if you ask us not to contact you for marketing purposes, we will keep a record of this in order to be able to comply with your request)
- Where relevant to protect the legitimate interests of shareholders, directors, officers (or similar persons) of the Client, and their respective beneficial owners
- For marketing activities (other than where we rely on your consent) to contact you by email or text with information about our products and services

Where you have consented to holding such information

- For example if you have expressly requested / consented to marketing materials being provided to you; or you have provided us with sensitive personal information about you in connection with the provision of our Services

8. Who we share personal information/Personal Data with

We will only disclose your personal information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. We will disclose your information to the following third parties:

- To a client entity in which you have a direct or indirect interest and/or such client's subsidiaries, holding company and or other associated counterparties of such client entity where such disclosure is necessary for us to perform our Services or we are otherwise required to share such information with such persons;
- Any person with legal or regulatory power over us (such as the JFSC, the office of the data protection commissioner, the Joint Financial Crimes Unit in Jersey, or any relevant Tax Authority) who may require disclosure on legal grounds;
- Service providers engaged by us to help us run our business and perform the Services. Such service providers may include, for example, cloud storage providers (engaged by us to provide electronic board packs, or other storage facilities for our business data and your information); and
- LASJ and any of its affiliated companies and where applicable any other member of NBK Group who is involved in (or expected to be involved in) the provision of Services to our clients.

Some of these third parties (including certain NBK Group subsidiaries and service providers) may be outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), the Channel Islands or other territories determined by the EU to have adequate protection for the protection of personal data. If we transfer your information in this way, we will take steps to ensure that appropriate security measures are taken with the aim of ensuring that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined in this Privacy Statement. Such steps include imposing contractual obligations on the recipient of your personal information or ensuring that the recipients are subscribed to 'international frameworks' that aim to ensure adequate protection.

9. How do we keep your personal information/Personal Data secure?

LASJ and NBK Trustees takes information security very seriously and therefore takes appropriate measures to protect such information from unauthorised theft, damage or access. LASJ has an information and cyber security policy which outlines the measures which will be taken to safeguard the availability, integrity and security of data which is aligned to ISO27001.

10. How long will we store your personal information/Personal Data for?

We generally expect to hold personal data on our systems for as long is necessary to provide the Services and ordinarily for 10 years after the termination thereof, in order to allow us to refer to your information in correspondence with you, or in connection with any ongoing or subsequent relevant matters (e.g. legal or regulatory proceedings).

11. Your rights

You have the following rights in relation to how we use your information. If you would like to exercise these rights please contact us using the contact details listed at section 14: "Who can you speak to at NBK Trustees about this Privacy Statement?"

- Right of access – you have the right to know if we are using your information and, if so, about how we are using it.
- Right of rectification – you have the right to require us to rectify any errors in the information we hold about you.
- Right to erasure – you have the right to require us to delete your information if our continued use is not justified.
- Right to restrict processing - in some circumstances, although you may not be entitled to require us to erase your information, you may be entitled to limit the purposes for which we can use your information.
- Right of data portability – you have the right to require us to provide you with a copy of your information in a commonly used machine-readable format or to transfer your information directly to another controller (e.g. a third party offering services competing with ours).

12. Marketing

We respect your privacy and to the extent we carry out any direct marketing activities we will carry these out in accordance with applicable laws and guidance.

We may contact you with marketing information by post or by telephone or with targeted advertising delivered online through social media and platforms operated by other companies, unless and until you object.

If you are a corporate entity and have engaged us for Services, we may also contact you with marketing information by email or other electronic means unless and until you object. If you are an individual or a member of an unincorporated entity (and except where the following paragraph applies) we will only contact you by email or electronic means with marketing information where you have given us your consent.

Where we have obtained your email address in connection with our contract with you for any Services, or where you have made a positive enquiry about any of our services, we may also contact you with marketing information about similar services by email or other electronic means unless and until you object.

From time to time, we may ask you to refresh your marketing preferences by asking you to confirm that you consent to continue receiving marketing information from us.

You have the right to opt-out of our use of your personal information to provide marketing to you by informing us (if we call you by telephone), or by clicking the “unsubscribe link” on any marketing email that we send to you, or by contacting us as set out in Section 14 below.

13. Changes to this Privacy Statement

Please note that this Privacy Statement will be reviewed and may be changed from time to time. Any changes we may make to our Privacy Statement in the future will be posted on our website.

14. Who can you speak to at NBK Trustees about this Privacy Statement?

In order to satisfy its obligations to you and to fulfil the relevant legal and regulatory obligations with respect to the processing of Personal Data, NBK Trustees has appointed a Data Protection Officer.

Questions, comments and the exercise of your rights regarding this Privacy Statement and your information are welcomed and can be addressed to the “NBK Trustees Data Protection Officer” by email at DPO@linkgroup.je or by post to 12 Castle Street, St Helier, Jersey JE2 3RT.

If you wish to make a complaint on how we have handled your personal information, you can contact the NBK Trustees Data Protection Officer directly using the above details. If you are not satisfied with our response, or believe we are processing your personal information not in accordance with the law, you can complain to the supervisory authority in Jersey responsible for the implementation and enforcement data protection law (the Office of the Information Commissioner (the “OIC”) whose website address is <https://oicjersey.org/>. You have the right to complain to the OIC about our collection and use of your information. You can contact the OIC via email enquiries@oicjersey.org or by calling their helpline – +44 (0)1534 716530.
