

For NBK Savings Account With Gifts:

1. NBK Savings Account with gifts like Al Jawhara Account is a non-interest-bearing account. However, it entitles the account holder to be eligible to enter draws for prizes as announced by the bank from time to time.
2. This account shall be opened by natural persons after depositing the initial minimum balance therein and may also be opened for customers below 21 years of age by their father or legal guardians. Their mother can also open such an account for any of her minor children as a donation from her, and can deposit or withdraw from the account. If her minor child is an orphan, she is prevented from withdrawing from the account. In respect to any prizes resulting from such an account, the mother that grants the donation hereby declares her acceptance to safekeeping these prizes at the bank until her minor child reaches the age of maturity, whereupon they shall have the right to receive them and dispose of the account.
3. Employees and wage earners of 18 years and above may open Al Jawhara Account, provided they submit a salary or wage certificate.
4. Deposits and withdrawals from the account shall only be made by approved banking notices.
5. In order to allow the customer to participate in the prize draw, the minimum account balance must be KD 50 for the weekly draw, KD 1,000 for the monthly draw and the grand prize draw. The aforementioned balance must be held in the account for a period of not less than one week prior to the date of the weekly draw, not less than one month prior to the date of the monthly draw, and not less than three months prior to the date of the grand prize draw. In addition, the customer's account must remain open until the date of the draw.
6. The bank will determine the number of entries into a draw based on the minimum balance in the account during the draw period or as decided by the bank from time to time.
7. The customer commits to maintaining the minimum balance required to participate in Al Jawhara Account prize draw, which is currently at the amount of KD 50 (fifty Kuwaiti Dinars) for the weekly draw, and the amount of KD 1,000 (one thousand Kuwaiti Dinars) for the monthly draw and grand prize draw. The customer acknowledges his/her final acceptance from now on, of the amendments decided by the bank solely to the aforementioned limits from time to time. The bank has the right, at its absolute discretion, to close the customer's account immediately after the credit account balance drops to zero or falls below the mentioned limit, without the need to alert or notify the customer.
8. The customer undertakes to pay the due commission of KD 2 (two Kuwaiti Dinars) per month, in the event of the average monthly credit balance falling below KD 200 (two hundred Kuwaiti Dinars) and agrees to any amendments made by the bank, unilaterally in respect of the rate of such commission or the minimum amount for the required balance from time to time. The customer authorizes the bank to collect such commission from the credit balance of any of the customer's accounts at the bank, and hereby releases the bank from any liability for damages arising from the reduction of the credit balance of Al Jawhara Account due to the collection of such commission, and the decrease in the chances to enter the weekly, monthly and quarterly draws for the prizes or not entering the draw at all.
9. In the event that the customer has won any of the cash prizes distributed as a result of a draw, and in the event that the credit balance has reached its maximum limit as determined by the bank, the bank shall deposit the value of the prize and whatever exceeds the aforesaid maximum limit in any other account which is opened in the name of the customer, or being opened by the bank at its discretion for this purpose.
10. The bank reserves the right to publish the names and photos of the customers who won the prize, jointly or individually, in any media or advertisement as determined by it, and shall have the right to also use this publication for promotion and marketing of its services and products.
11. The bank may select a standby winner in case the primary winner does not meet the terms and conditions of Al Jawhara Account. NBK may, as it deems appropriate, open a new account in the name of the winner to deposit the value of the prize if it is unable to reach the winner or if the winner's sole account has reached its maximum limit.
12. The bank reserves the right to amend or cancel any or all the account features of this account, or the terms relating to draws for prizes, without serving prior notice to this effect. The customer acknowledges and accepts that all other terms and conditions stipulated in the application form for opening bank accounts, including any amendments thereto in the future, shall apply to Al Jawhara Account mentioned above.
13. Employees of National Bank of Kuwait and their first-degree relatives (father, mother, spouse and children) are excluded from all Al Jawhara draws. Should an employee or any of their first-degree relatives win, they shall immediately return the value of the prize to NBK. Furthermore, NBK shall have the right to deduct the value of the prize directly from the account(s) of the winner without the need to obtain an approval.
14. Any of the heirs of the account holder may receive/collect his/her share of the inheritance from the account balance. Such heir(s) shall not be considered a joint account holder after receiving his/her share, and may not demand that his/her share be entered into draws that the bank conducts for prizes. The account shall remain standing for the remaining heirs. The other heirs may participate in the draws for prizes within the existing balance of the account at the time of the draw. In all events, the bank may, at its discretion, decide at any time to close the account without any liability towards the heirs.
15. The maximum allowed limit in all Al Jawhara Accounts by one customer is KD 500,000 (five hundred thousand Kuwaiti Dinars).
